

Audlem Wildlife and Ecology Group

Programme of Events 2023

| Date | Event |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| 10 th January | AWEG Annual Meal Venue and details to be decided |
| 7pm 24 th January | Bill Morton will give a talk on “Birding at Frodsham Marshes” |
| 7pm 21st February | Keith Offord talking about “The Wild Wood” Exploring the changing faces of a beautiful old 13-acre woodland on Wales/Shropshire border through the seasons. https://www.keithofford.co.uk/ |
| 2pm 28 th February | Following the success of our trip to Batherton Wood last spring we have a further trip to see the area in winter, with David Bromont and the farmer. |
| 22nd March | Field trip to Martin Mere. |
| 7pm 18 th April | Phil Playford will give a talk on Badgers. |
| 26 th April | Field trip to Frodsham Marshes |
| 17 th May | Field Trip to “The Wild Wood” |
| 31 st May | Field trip to Whixall Moss area. |
| 7pm 6 th June | Cath Price of Shropshire Wildlife Trust will give a talk on “The plants, wildlife, and management of the Molverley meadows” |
| 7 th June | Field trip to Molverley Meadows |
| 7pm 18 th July | Buffy Morris will give a talk on Biodiversity and Climate Change. |
| 7pm 12 th Sept | David Gregson from Friends of Hilbre Island will talk about the area. |
| 24 th October | Field trip to Hilbre Island |
| 7pm 14 th Nov | Steve Townsend of Soil First Farming will give a talk titled 'What Lies Beneath' discussing soil fertility, management, organisms and impact of cultivation. |