Introduction and Opening Prayer

Hymn

Marlborough College Chapel Choir

Morning has broken, like the first morning; Blackbird has spoken, like the first bird. Praise for the singing, praise for the morning Praise for them springing fresh from the Word

Sweet the rain's new fall sunlit from heaven, Like the first dewfall on the first grass. Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden, Sprung in completeness where His feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight mine is the morning Born of the one light Eden saw play! Praise with elation, praise every morning, God's re-creation of the new day.

Poem

The Star, by Catherine Turner, read by Rachael

A light went out on Earth for me The day we said goodbye And on that day a star was born, The brightest in the sky Reaching through the darkness With its rays of purest white Lighting up the Heavens As it once lit up my life With beams of love to heal The broken heart you left behind Where always in my memory Your lovely star will shine

The Collect

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; 1 therefore can I lack nothing. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters. He shall refresh my soul 3 and guide me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, 4 I will fear no evil: for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You spread a table before me 5 in the presence of those who trouble me; you have anointed my head with oil and my cup shall be full. Surely goodness and loving mercy shall follow me 6 all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Bible Reading

1Thessalonians 4:13-18

But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord for ever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Homily

Prayers

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn

Fron Male Voice Choir

Guide me, O thou great Redeemer, Pilgrim through this barren land; I am weak, but thou art mighty; Hold me with thy powerful hand: Bread of heaven, bread of heaven, Feed me 'til I want no more Feed me 'til I want no more.

When I tread the verge of Jordan, Bid my anxious fears subside; Death of death, and hell's destruction, Land me safe on Canaan's side: Strong Deliverer, strong deliverer Be thou still my strength and shield Be thou still my strength and shield.

Songs and praises, songs and praises I will ever give to thee, I will ever give to thee.

Hymn

We plough the fields and scatter The good seed on the land, But it is fed and watered By God's almighty hand. He sends the snow in winter, The warmth to swell the grain, The breezes, and the sunshine, And soft refreshing rain. All good gifts around us Are sent from heaven above; Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord, For all his love.

He only is the maker Of all things near and far; He paints the wayside flower, He lights the evening star; The winds and waves obey him, By him the birds are fed; Much more to us, his children, He gives our daily bread. All good gifts around us ...

We thank thee then, O Father, For all things bright and good, The seed-time and the harvest, Our life, our health, our food. Accept the gifts we offer For all thy love imparts, And, what thou most desirest, Our humble, thankful hearts. All good gifts around us ...

Family, where life begins and love never ends.

Rachael and Andrew thank all of their friends and family for the love and support they have shown to their families. Instead of flowers, they have requested donations to Shoreham RNLI which was one of Jenny's favourite places to visit with grandchildren and friends.
