About Nantwich Players:

Nantwich Players was founded in 1927 as Nantwich Play-Reading Circle and is now a thriving amateur group with registered charity status. Our main activities are producing 10 plays a year (one always staged by our youth Theatre and three by our Studio Theatre).

Each play has a different director, and every play involves new members in one role or another.

Our theatre seats 82 people all with a good view of the stage and spaces are available for wheelchair users.
